POLSPOTTEN x BYBORRE

Our shared passion for craftsmanship, creativity, and technology has given birth to a fabric design that transports you beneath the waves. Reveal in our playful, polka-dot pattern that honors traditional heritage and the mesmerizing beauty of the sea. We've joined forces with BYBORRE's eco-friendly fabric, reimagining classic POLSPOTTEN pieces like the iconic Puff Chair, Puff Puff Loveseat, Clover stool, and Todd Lounge Chair.

Thanks to BYBORRE's knitting technology we can create a collection that seamlessly combines sustainability and ethical production. This piece reflects the ocean's unique allure, a celebration of light dancing water.
